We are delighted to be able to offer this established Cafe2U mobile coffee business for sale. The business visits local businesses serving office workers and the public with the highest quality espresso based coffee in and around the local area. The business has positive cash flow, no bad debts, a well established clientele in an exclusive area, a great reputation and genuinely excellent prospects for expansion. As part of a global brand the Cafe2U business format is amongst the most successful mobile business formats currently available.

This is part of the market leading Cafe2u franchise network and includes extensive training and support from the brand owner. The Coffee industry is growing rapidly every year and considered to be worth as much as £7 billion annually in the UK. By acquiring this business you'll be in a buoyant market place with a very favourable trading environment and the back up of an excellent management team with a vested interest in your continued success.

This business is perfect for anyone interested in leaving the rat race and provides immediate cash flow and profits along with flexible hours and the ability to scale the business up to a multi van concern.
