Fluent in Franchising | Brilliant at Brand Licensing

Lime is a multi-award winning franchise consultancy that helps franchising entrepreneurs to create franchise systems and recruit franchise networks in the worlds largest franchise markets in the UK and North America. Lime is made up of experienced entrepreneurs with successful franchising backgrounds. Amongst our team are former multi-brand franchisors, master license holders, franchisees and niche advisors.

Lime publishes the bi-annual franchise magazine Franchise Life, which is distributed free of charge to potential franchise buyers and at major franchise events. Franchise Life is available in print format and an online directory, which is one of the largest in the UK.

Lime owns a marketing agency that specialises in franchise marketing and also an executive recruitment company that recruits experienced franchise professionals.

Our various brands all have one thing in common which is to help franchisors to excel!

We are accredited by the Quality Franchise Association, the Canadian Franchise Association, and are members of the Federation of Small Businesses.

By focussing on recruiting franchise partners our setup work is tailored to what will work when recruiting, rather than what looks good at the outset! By keeping the eventual franchise buyer at the front of our minds we design franchise systems that outperform industry norms.
